5. Old Business/tournaments

Elections will be held in Fall 2022.

An upgrade to Premium Signup Genius is available for $11.99 USD per month. It was agreed that the upgrade is a good idea as Signup Genius is used for each week except for the Tombstone event.

6. New Business

The fee for the season is $35 for players who wish to be included in all games, or $30 for those who do not want to play the games which require a Golf Canada handicap.

Golf Canada membership is $52.00 + GST from the golf club or if purchased online $59.95 + GST. The membership includes an app which calculates distances on the golf course.

Brenda Konkin will continue to take care of the score board which is located downstairs.

Susan Evans will take care of the weekly KP. The holes included are 4, 8 (in two), and 12. The cost is $.25 each hole.

Thursday Evening Ladies' Golf will now cost $10.00 to join the game. The number of prizes is increasing, and the cost of prizes is rising. A 50/50 component is included in the $10.00 fee. If a player has no handicap, the club is proposing the player declare a handicap of 32. The pro shop offered to track scores and to help people calculate handicaps.

Zone 1 Ladies' Championship will take place June 4 and 5 at Castlegar. Linda asked for volunteers and suggestions for a theme. It will be held the same weekend as Castlegar Sunfest. Usually there are about 50 participants.

The Ladies' Club Championship is scheduled for July 16/17. There will be a fun flight again this year.

7. Tournaments for 2022

See the list downstairs on the bulletin board.

The Castlegar Ladies' Club and the Osoyoos Ladies' Club are invited to go to Christina Lake on June 7. The cost is $40.00. The Christina Lake Ladies' Club would like to come to Castlegar at the end of August.

The Two Person Best Ball tournament will be held June 18.

8. Club update from Pat Biln

Pat welcomed everyone back.

There will be more events this year.

Shotgun starts will begin again this year.

The deck has been replaced.

Compressors have been replaced in the restaurant.

Ten new golf carts have arrived. There is still a shortage of carts. Pat requested that, when possible, carts carry two people. Having both seats occupied eases the number of carts and fewer carts cuts down on wear and tear on the course.

$60,000.00 will be used to repave some of the cart paths.

The membership is ahead of last year's numbers. Pat expects it to be about 450-470 members.

There are many supply issues this year. For example pencils, plastic bags, coloured golf balls and range balls are difficult to get. Custom orders cannot be guaranteed. This is a good time to sell used equipment.

Golf lessons are available from teaching professional, John Rushnell. His business card is available in the pro shop. He will offer Friday night couples' lessons and custom lessons for groups of four as well as other individually tailored lessons. Junior lessons have started and are filling up quickly.

Calcium chloride will be applied around the cart shed in order to keep the dust down.

The pond is getting sludgy, but it would cost $20,000.00 to remove the sludge.

Mark Lloyd gave an update on the tee box repairs. Many of the tees are starting to get bumps and clumps.

#13 forward tee is in the process of being repaired. It has been aerated and pressed down and will be top dressed with sand.

#14 forward tee needs repairs. It may be moved toward the centre of the fairway. The work will most likely occur in the fall.
